SONS OF JACOB SYNAGOGUE

Sustaining Jewish faith and community in Northeast Iowa since 1905.

February 2017, Simchat Torah Celebration

Wisdom and critical thinking are fundamental to Judaism. Sons of Jacob makes Jewish education accessible by offering small, classes and online learning opportunities.

Adult Education Judaism 101:

This class explains what it means to be Jewish. Whether you are interested in converting or just learning more about the Jewish faith, join us for an introduction to the spiritual and cultural foundations of Judaism.

Adult Hebrew:

Sons of Jacob offers two online Hebrew classes taught by knowledgeable staff and open to students of all levels. Beginning Hebrew introduces newcomers to the language. Intermediate Hebrew helps students improve reading proficiency.

Jewish Connections Book Club:

Exchange ideas and connect with others through literature. Each month, club members read and discuss a fiction or nonfiction book to enhance their knowledge of Jewish history and culture.

Youth Education

Our youth Hebrew School meets regularly on Wednesdays and Sundays. The curriculum focuses on Hebrew language instruction and Jewish themes, including holidays and Bible lessons. The staff consists of warm, enthusiastic and knowledgeable instructors.

Plaques

Integrity, compassion, charity, love, and leadership are honored at Sons of Jacob. A wide variety of legacy plaques are available to remember a loved one of blessed memory, recognize service or achievement, and to celebrate special occasions.

Special Events

Jewish holidays and festivals keep tradition alive and contribute to a sense of community. Attend joyous parties, group dinners, and a variety of cultural and educational programs at Sons of Jacob

Book of Remembrance

The Sons of Jacob heritage is recorded by a calligrapher in the exquisite Book of Remembrance. Here, members and friends can share their family history and cherished Jewish values while helping to support the synagogue.

High Holidays

Rosh Hashanah celebrates the Jewish New Year, and Yom Kippur is a day for repentance and moral renewal. Sons of Jacob is proud to provide Jews, and others, the opportunity to observe these Holy Days together. Participants can expect meaningful services, including a shofar and tashlich service, as well as traditional holiday foods such as apples, honey, challah and a full break-the-fast meal. Please see the back for information about High Holiday ticket pricing.
